We are offering the opportunity to work in this unique garden, working under the guidance of the Senior Gardener.

Bridge End Garden is an important historic garden, tucked away in Saffron Walden which draws many visitors. The garden plays an important role in the historic fabric and history of the town and is a much-loved space by the local community and visitors alike.

Horticultural experience and qualifications are desirable, along with a willingness to learn more about the upkeep and maintenance of a Victorian garden. An important attribute is a friendly attitude with a willingness to engage with the visiting public and the volunteers that work in the Garden.
